REPUBLICAN PLOT TO DISFRANCHISE

the Outh of Allegiance, Is to Be a Precedent for the Stealing of a State, ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

ing to be naturalized, if it is impossible for that person to come to him. In 1889 many railroad construction hands, miners and wood-cutters who were working in remote districts or camps throughout the State, could not yo to the District Court clerks to take the required oath and yet desired to become chizens in time to vote at the first State election. To accommodate those men deputy clerks of the District Courts were sent to the various camps to naturalize them, not known as determ of the child states, notions ago her citizenshin was called in question, and it was discovered that the oath had been ad-ministered in her room at a hotel instead of in the clerk's office. For that reason her naturalization was decided by the United States Circuit Court to be irregular and In the county of Silver Bow alone 700 men were sworn in at the cames and mines, where they were then working, in 1888, and in Deer Lodge County in the same year no less than seven hundred and fifty were sworn in at their places of business. United States Marshai Furav has a list of the men so naturalized in Deer Lodge County and a list of the 700 Silver Bow men has been prepared and will be sent to Clerk G. W. Sproule, or the United States District Court at Helena. Marshai Furavy deputies have been for some time secretly at work securing the names of men in every county of the State who were naturalized in the manner described, and the lists prepared by them are now about ready for presentation to the Court.

To Take Anna Dickinson Abroad

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
PITTSTON, Pa., March 23.—The Dickinon home in West Pittston is to be broken up. Miss Anna, broken down in health, is an inmate of the Danville Hospital, and her an inmate of the Danville Hospital, and har sister, Miss Staan, is now engaged in packing up her household goods, large library, Anna's theatrical equipments and other valuable property, preparatory to stowing them away. Miss Dickinson says she wants to be ready at a moment's notice to take Anna on a foreign tour just as soon as she is able to atand a the journey. Reports received from her physicians are to the effect that she continues to improve.

Immigration Increasing.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] WASHINGTON, March 23.-The report of the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shows that during February 19,089 immigrants arrived in United States ports from foreign countries other than Canada and Mexico. This is 2.116 in excess of the number arriving during February of last year. The total of such immigration during eight months ending Feb. 28 is 264,005, which is an increase of 45,412 over the corresponding eight months of 1889-90.

of Ontario, under the name of the Ontario Farmers' Union. The movement is similar to that of the Farmers' Alliance in the United States.

SUPPRESSING SUFFRAGE, WAGNER'S THREE-YEAR CONTRACT. He Menns to Sue for an Injunction Agninet Griffin, [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] 7,000 MONTANA CITIZENS.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23. — Manager Sharsig, with the team he had selected, confidently counted upon winning the pennant this year. He had all his men signed Which She Was Denied Citizenship with the exception of two outfielders and on Account of Irregularity in Taking counted on Griffin and McGeachy as a certainty to complete his team. It goes without saying he was greatly shocked when informed that these players had gone back on the Athletics. Mr. Wagner received two BUTT, MOD., March 23.—A movement has been besum by the leaders of the Republican party in Washington to throw Montana into the Republican column in 1892, insure the re-election of Naunders to the United States Senate, steal three electoral votes from the Democracy and contest the seat of Democratic liberage and the season of the Contending season in 1892, insure the re-election of Naunders to the United States Senate, steal three electoral votes from the Democracy and contest the seat of Democratic liberage and the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States of the States Marshal and his deputies, the United States of the States of the States of the States of the United States out in the open air instead of the States of the States of the States of the United States out in the open air instead of the the office of the Clerk of the District Court in the districts of which they are residential election, and to thus insure a Republican majority in the State.

All this is to be done because 7,000 men took the oast to suppose the States of th Butte, Mou., March 23.—A movement messages Saturday, one being from Griffin has been begun by the leaders of the and the other from McGeachy. The former

MEYERS'S CLEVER RUSE.

He Claimed a Foul and Hoodwinked the Gloucester Judges. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD, I were few. The only unpleasant feature of the day was the riding of Meyers on Appomattox. He was the favorite at even money in the betting and though he was wel tacked his price remained stationary. Meyers rode a very suspicious race, holding him under a pull, and turned into the stretch with a lead of a length. At the six-tcenth pole he allowed India Rubber to pass him and take the finish, with Appomattox's head in the air. Had Meyers not pulled him up he would have cut down the leader, he was so full of running. After the race Meyers claimed a foul, which was not allowed. What was surprising was that the judges did not question him as to his bad riding. The claim of a foul was evidently a bluff and it worked like a charm. deatly a bluff and it worked like a charm.

The first race was a dash of seven furlongs. Vilage King was made the favorite closely pressed by los Girl. Mulligan at long odds wow after a deep off, but at the last sutceenth Mulligan and Ida Girl came up on the outside, and catching the thring leaders beat them both out, Mulligan winning under the whip by a neck, Ida Girl beating Vevay balf a length for the place with Lonely at his neek. Time—1.41. Betting—Mulligan, 25 and 8; Ida Girl, 3 and even. The winner was at one time 50 to 1 in the betting. Coldier rode the winner.

The second race was at four and a half furlongs. Bonnie Lass was first to show, immediately opening a gap of two lengths and was never headed, winning easily by a half length. The Monage fily and Costa Rica at length in the startch Speed.

turn into the stretch, but-on the stretch Sneeker brought the former on the outside, and gesting the best of going Leat him home easily by two lengths. Figure 103. Betting—Bonnis Lass, 2 and 4 to 5; Nonage filly, 6 and 2. Ros rode the winner, and the result of the bestsarreshes and the continuous of the end of the bestsarreshes the management of the bestsarreshes from the continuous the management of the bestsarreshes from the bestsarreshes the management of the bestsarreshes the management of the bestsarreshes from the bestsarreshes the management of the same the cond, eight lengths before Romp, who beat management of the protection of the protection winner.

The sport ended with a dash of seven furlongs. Harry Brown, attended by Jennis Townsend and larnum, made and the state of the Canada Now Wants a Farmers' Alliance. Of health and strength renewed and of ease BEAMSVILLE, Ont., March 23. -The farm- and comfort follows the use of Symur or Pica, PERSONAL AND PERTINENT.

A high-minded man is to walk on stilts from Paris to Moscow. H. M. Stanley runs a lunch counter could discover. A hailstorm prevailed in parts of Florida on Sunday, during which windows were broken and fruit battered from the trees. This news from Florida should in a measure reconcile us to our March weather up North.

The monument to be erected in Tennessee over the remains of Davy Crockett, the famous hunter, is to be of Tennessee granite and something over 37 feet high. It is to have various designs representing pioneer life. Col. Crockett looks down over the grizzly bear he loved to hunt, but the wise coon that always came down without wait. coon that always came down without waiting to be shot is strangely left out of the design.

See and Labor.

The semi-annual Convention of the National Outton Mill Spinners of America will be held in Labor ton Mill Spinners of America will be held in Labor ton Mill Spinners of America will be held in Labor ton Mill Spinners of America will be held in Tabor.

April 7.

W. H. Holloway, of Indiana, who was Gov. Morton's private secretary, says that soon after Fort Sumter was fired upon County branch. County branch, County

A Chicago man tells of a deadlock that prevailed at the White House when the Emperor of Brazil was entertained there. A United States Senstor kindly informed the distinguished guest that he, the Emperor. Would be expected to remain until the other guests had taken their leave. The mistress of the White House had also notified her guests that they would be expected to follow, not precede, the royal party in leaving the house. The time came to go, but no one dared depart first. The Emperor, according to instructions, was waiting for the others to go and the others were waiting for him to move. The deadlock continued for him to move him to the form the him to move him to him to move him to the form to move him t him to move. The deadlock continued for an hour or more, to the embarrassment of everybody, and was only broken by a tired-out woman who pretended sudden illness.

the Female Thinker loose. She takes all the credit to herself for the political revolution, and the farmer who did the voting simply did as she told him to. There his responsibility ends and he can betake himself again below the propriete and his barrant of the case of the Kearry spinners, whose below the constant of to his bees and cows. The Female Thinker to his bees and cows. The Female Thinker now talks of the marriage relation and the possible effect her "new emancipated condition" will have upon it. In her opinion dition "will have upon it. In her opinion men will have great trouble hereafter to get wives. For instance, Susan B. Anthony says: "The woman of the future is not going to snatch at everything that passes for a man because it draws a salary." Lillie Devereux Blake says: "Woman's progress man because it draws a salary." Lillie Devereux Blake says: "Woman's progress interferes with marriage and makes girls fastidious." and intimates that it is likely to be hard sledding for the men who have not already been lucky enough to provide already been lucky enough to provide PHILADELPHIA, March 23.—The weather themselves with wives, and so on through a was delightful at Gloucester to-day and a list of thinkers including Rev. Anna B. good crowd was present. Though the Shaw. Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Rachel track was in a wretched condition scratches Foster Avery, Julia Ward Howe, Ella Deitz alves with wives, and so on through a f thinkers including Rev. Anna B. Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Rachel or Avery, Julia Ward Howe, Ella Deits aer and others. From their point of the outlook is decidedly dark for the helor.

THE SERVICES WERE STOPPED,

THE SERVICES WERE STOPPED,

The strikers bed a meeting in the evening in the seventh of the linearational (Ingermakers) Union Ward Howe, Dila dopting resolutions that they will hold out until the bases comply with their demands.

There are seventy-six delinquents upon the seventh of the international (Ingermakers) Union who have in my position. Then I went to look, all special services yesterday in their temporary chapel in the basement of St. Paul's Cathedral in memory of the eleven men is supposited in the payment of $30,000. In the payment of $30,000. In this position, and $0,000.

Samual aler, who was expelled by Bakers' Union who have in my position. Then I went to look in the my position. Then I went to look in the power was purchased in the entry of the eleven men of St. Paul's Cathedral in memory of the eleven men is possible. The strikers begin the against the power of the international Union will be concluded the Rev. Dr. Wall, Vicar-General concluded the Rev. Dr. Wall, Vicar-General pointed on Friday to frame the demands of the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the international Union will be conceeded the seventh of the se of the diocese, appeared on the scene and inquired by what right the church was being profaned by such ceremonies. The wornippers thereupon fied in haste from the church, which was crowded.

The Italians had evidently feared interference from the Bishop, for they had made the announcement of the meeting secretly and all the plans were carried out stealthily. Directly in front of the altar, when Dr. Wall burst upon the startled congregation, stood a large catafalque draped with white and black. At the four corners candles burned and the catafalque was covered with waxen tapers iron base to too. The summit should be separated, on one side are the should be separated. On one side are the falque was covered with waxen tapers iron base to too. The summit point of the distart appears to from the should be united and a separation of that which should be separated. On one side are the falque was covered with waxen tapers iron base to too. The summit point of the distart and the catafalque was covered with waxen tapers iron base to too. The summit point of the distart and the catafalque was covered with waxen tapers iron base to too. The summit point of the distart and the catafalque was covered with waxen tapers iron base to too. The summit point in the sent tooked and a separation of the way that I was once a Presbyterian minister."

He paused as though he expected some one to utter an exclamation of surparison the summer was all the sound to hear.

"Yes, I was a preacher, and one to learn the common of that which should be united and a separation of that which should be separated. On one side are the daughter. They were very pleasant, and though the child we were all soon patien, and on the other the despolers, trembing children. hers candles burned and the casafaique was covered with waxen tapers
i from base to top. The summit was surmounted by a large wooden cross draped in black with white trimmings upon the ends. Immediately beneath this was a miniature casket wrapped in black. On the front of the catafalque was unitted in black, with a white back ground, a skull and cross bones. Big placards on the four sides bore the inscription: 'In memoria dei patriotta.'

The services began with the chanting of a doieful refrain, to which responses were made by twelve men who sat in a square around the catafalque. Christopher Columbus Cornet Band then played a funeral march and after prayer Father Annavogzie started to preach a funeral sermon.

Dr. Wall says the service was held in violation of the rules of the church.

The Western Settler's Chosen Specific.

With every advance of emigration into the far West, a new domand is created for Hostetter's tomach Bisters. Newly peopled regions are fro quently less salubrious than older settled localities.

In account of the missma which rises from recently Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, between leared land, particularly along the banks of rivers Lenox and Seventh avenues, which is to be quently less salubrious than older section recently on account of the misama which rises from recently cleared land, particularly along the banks of rivers that are subject to freshets. The agricultural or mining emigrant soon learns, when he does not already know, that the Bitters aford the only sure protection against malaria, and those disorders of stomach, liver and bowels, to which chimatic changes, exposure and unaccustomed or unbeathy water or diet subject him. Consequently, he places and estimate upon this great household specific and an estimate upon this great household specific and an estimate upon this great household specific and an estimate upon this great household specific and the firm decided to move uptown, and hariemites will have a veritable dry-goods palace almost at their doors.

Koch & Co. will also carry a full line of militarious marks.

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

Carpenters' Union No. 209 will colebrate its ani-Ale and Porter Union No. 1 will have its annual ball on April 11. White Cloud. It was the best location he about 700,000 able-bodied workmen are out of Road Knights Grow Communica-

> In place of P. C. Kelley, the State Board of Appeals has elected Nicholas J. Quinn, Secretary-Treasurer of the Massachusetts State Assambly, K. Treasurer of the Massachusetts State Assembly, K. of L.
> Two new local unions have been chartered this menth by the Granite Cutters' National Union and sixty-five members were gained throughout the country.
>
> During and since the late eigermakers' lockout in Binghamton five manufacturers have failed in business.

evening.

to Capt. Grant that in Lincoln was but six 75,000 men Indiana's quota was but six regiments, and these were all supplied with commanders.

Som & Company's boycotted store on bpring sures.

Is there are more than five million well-to-do and confthere are more than five millions well-to-do and confof more than sixty-two millions?

The incident illustrates what a beautiful thing social etiquette is when common sense is entirely barred.

The recent uprising in Kansas has turned the Female Thinker loose. She takes all the credit to herself for the political revolution, and the farmer who did the voting simple map as "discussing places patronized by a bout $90, 100.

The general fund is estimated to be as bout $90, 100.

The leaders of trades unions magnet be as brilliant nor do exactly as one would wish; but give them your sid and encouragement and continue to better your rights; get together and you will rejoice together in the victory; you are bound to win, for the right will prevail in the end.

And now the Newark police resorts to its eld trick in the send.

The ladies of Harlem and the Annexed District are much interested in the new five-story, fire-proof building on the south side of One protection against maintain the stormach, liver and bowels, to which changes, exposure and unaccurtomed or unbeatthy changes, exposure and unaccurtomed or unbeatthy water or diet subject him. Consequently, he places an estimate upon this great household specific and preventure commensurate with its intrinsic merite, and is careful to keep on hand a restorative and promoter of health so implicitly to be relied upon in promoter of health so implicitly to be relied upon in new store.

tive Over a Bucket of Beer.

Reasons Why They Took to Begging as a Mode of Living.

such as often visits the Colorado plains. of A-- was almost as quiet as a graveshelters that afforded them the greatest immunity from the great warmth tank, where the ground was moistened and cooled by the leaks and drippage, four men were reclining in easy posi-toused up from his lethargy and spoke Tragic Ending at Des Meines of a Ser the one word, "Beer." The effect was

A Fine Display of Parasols.

and were sighing for the breezes of In the shade of the railroad water

There was constrained to the common which was improvised as a count of the common which was improved to the common which was improved the common which was the number of the ticket agent of the common which was the number of the ticket agent of the common which was the number of the ticket agent of the common which was the number of the ticket agent of the common which was the number of the common which was the common which w

The cigar-makers of Stratton & Storm's factory in Quincy, Fis., complain of inw wages and brataitestiment. Last week Fronk Dunn and Ruddiph Katz, members of the local union which was recently organized, were discharged for accepting positions as officers of that union.

It is charged that Isaac Marks, 55 Monroe street, whose eigar-makers are on strike, has been furnished "scabs" by the United Hebrew Chartties, although the directors of that concern have traquently declared that the ininds of Baron Hirsch, from which the Hebrew Chartties are largely supplied, would never be used against striking workman.

Bakers' Union No. 38 will hold its quarterly meeting on stunday, April 5. The question will be discussed what to do in regard to the resignation of Kditor losen, of the Bakers' Journal, whose salars was reduced by the Indianopous Convention. The union has sixtuen members out of employment. Last week 8,000 labels were sold.

The striking cloakmakers received $130 yesterday from the Joakers Haven Bakers' Linon. From "That's the kind of a feller to meet," "That's the kind of a feller to meet," and the toughest-looking glistener, "only said the toughest-looking glistener," only Oliver says this is the second attemp which has been made on his life and projecty, and he believes he can name the guilt party. He declines to offer any explanatio at present, but says he will state the facts the District-Attorney Fleming. Oliver says has received threatening letters orderinhim to move out of the place, under peralty of death. He says notices that his life was in danger have been posted on his house repeatedly.

which should be united and a separation of this which should be separated. On one side are the producers hand in hand, determined upon emanesting, and on the other the despotlers, trembling vainly before a movement that nothing can stop and that will overwhelm them.

The new contract to be submitted to the Union breveries by Journeymen Biewers' Union No. 1 provides that, foremen and assistants excepted, ense but union members must be employed at any work in any union brewers. Members recommended by salcontespers must not be employed at any work in any union brewers. Members recommended by salcontespers must not be employed at any work in any union brewers. Members recommended by salcontespers must not be employed at any work in any union brewers. Members recommended by salcontespers must not be employed. For every twenty-five members one apprentice will be allowed. The bours of labor are to be ten in twelve every week day, and on funday not more than two. The soults of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the sum of the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the crup on the still of the car window. I had the cru

Women was are purchasing Spring costumes often find it difficult to find parasols of shades to match their costumes. What they want to know, is a place where their own materials can be made to suit them if they cannot be suited be made to suit them if they cannot be suited in stock. Such a place is Richards, 70 West Twenty-third street, who is to-day and to-morrow exhibiting his Spring styles in parasols and coaching shades. A more magnificent stray couldn't be found anywhere. These goods were obtained bersonally by Mr. Richards on a recent visit to Paris. The tendency in parasols is towards lace and silk in different shades and patterns, with handsome paintings of flowers and figures in the panels. The house claims to have the largest variety of this class of goods in the country. "."

ASPHYXIATED LOVERS.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

SING SING'S NEW WARDEN.

Postmaster Brown, of Newburg, In Duly

Brush as Warden of the Sing Sing Prison foreshadowed in The World, was formally announced to-day by Supt. Lathrop, of the State Prisons Department. Mr. Brown will take possession of the office when his $50.

YORE, Pa., March 23.—Schall & Donner, bank-ers, have assigned. The liabilities and assets cannot be ascertained, but it is a complete fail-

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 23.—John H. Inman, of the Terminal Company, was given a banquet by prominent citizens to-night. Senator Edmund was also a guest, INDIAMAPOLIS, Ind., March 23.—Prof. David B. Jordan, President of the Indiana state University, has accepted the Presidency of the Le-land Stanford University of California.

land Stanford University of California.
WILESBARER, Pa. March 23.—Henry Conrad. aged 24 years, died this evening and Nirholas Miller, aged 25 sers, is dying. They were poisoned by eating a root that they took for artichoke.

ALBANT, N.Y., March 23.—David J. Johnston, of Cohoes, Commissioner from this State at the New Orleans Parcestion in 1884, placed in the Secretary of State s office to-day the Red Cross banner presented to this States exhibit at New Orleans by Clara Barton, President of the Red Cross Society.

MATINEE TO-DAY. asmade to blow up the cottage occupied by August Oliver, an employee in the Grosjean Factory, at this place last night.

A bomb, made of gas pipe, three inches long, three inches in diameter, loaded with powder and bits of scrap iron, was discovered under the edge of the house. The fuse had been lighted, but had been put out by the rain dripping from the caves of the Oliver says this is the second attempt MIBLO'N

MCKENNA'S

BARRY | FLIRTATION PHEMS. | PREMS. | PROCTOR'S THEATRE | MEN 200th perf. Wed. M'ch 25. Neuvenirs AND CASAN, FRGHMAN'S CO. WOMEN. MATS. TO MORROW AND BAT. WOMEN.

BTANDARD THEATRE. J. M. HILL, Mgr.
LAUGHING & L.
PEBTIVAL
MATINEE SATURDAY. ALBANY, March 23.—The appointment of William Brown, of Newburg, to succeed Brush as Warden of the Sing Sing Prison, preshadowed in The World, was formally nonqueed to-day by Sange 1. See State 1. See State 2. See State 2. See State 3. See CARMENCITA, MHERG THEATRE, Irving Place & 19th st.
To-night, Kerl Streitmann and Adele Epstein in "Poor Jonathan" We nearly, Thursday and Saturday Matines, Sodom's Kade: Friday, first time, Ibren's "Gespenster" (Ghosts): Saturday evening,
first time, Faula Loewe in "Plotts Weiber."

PENSIONS.

Emperor William Sent Congratulations. Hamburg, March 21.—The Hamburg-American Packet Company's steamer Augusta Victoria, Capt. Barends, with the Albant, N.Y. March 23.—Devid J. Johnston, of Chobes, Commissioner from this State at the New Oriesans Exposition in 1884, placed in the Secretary of State's office to-day the hed Cross Society.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE JUNIOR IS THE BEST OVETER Biseum in the world, and the delight of boys and girls Boise 30c. HEALTH FOOD CO., 61 Mh are:

"ANCHOR BRAND" SHIRTS Are the best. A trial convinces.

"LION BRAND" COLLARS AND CUFFS Do you was them?

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN BARNUM and BAILEY'S With its multitude of New Attractions, Rings, 2 Elevated Stages, Racing Tracks, 2 Menageries, 2 Berds of Hispanata, 2 Droves of Camels, Mystatyine Illusione, 100 Creur Performers, 100 Ansang Acts, ampion Equations, Acrialists, Specialists, a 1,000 Marting Features, and with it The Grand, Historical Speciacies of

NERO:

or, the Destruction of Rome.

Inne Kiralty, Author, Director and Producer.

200 Feeple in the Case.

300 Actors. Charles in the Case.

400 Actors. Charles in the Case.

400 Magnificant Pagenas. Costiny Costames.

An Magnificant Pagenas. Costiny Costames.

Rare Animals. Armor, Weapons, Devices, and an Embarrassment of Rich Daplay.

TWO PERFORMANCES DALLY

at Zand 5 P. M. Deors open at 1 and 7 P. M.

Admession, 30 cents (26th and 27th st. entrances);

Children under nips years. 25 cents. Reserved Seats, 81 and $1.0. Private Boxes. $5, 87 and $12, according to location.

Monster Torchlight Parade Wednesday Night (Weather permitting). Houte as follows: 5th ave. to 57th st., to 8th ave., to 42th 44th, to 8th ave., to 4th st., to 4th ave., to 4th 4theon st., to 8th ave., to 27th st., to Madison Square Garden.

BESERVED SEATS, Orchestra Circle 50c.
WEDNESDAY-MATINEE-SATURDAY. TO-NIGHT FRANK DANIELS

NEXT WEEK-MARGARET MATHER. SMILII AND BERTHLONG'S COMEDY CO.

FAMILY
THEATRE
MORTH'S

GIR AND MUSKUM,
DU'N from 10 A. M. to 11 F. M. Adm. 10c, Res. 4 te action
Don't fail to use the wonderful CH syP. BLATT.
STAGE PERFORMANCE THIS WEEK. 1-STH ST. THEATRE. NEAR STH AVE.
Reserved Orchestra Circle and Salcony, 50c.
One week only, Wednesday and Saturday Matiness.

TO-NIGHT.
PERFORMANCE
GREAT FLAY.
NEXT WEER-WM. A. Brady " "After Dark." H. C. MINER'S PEOPLE'S THEATRE THE BURGLAR.

LAUGHTER AND TEARS

H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE, COR. SIST ST. THE TWELVE TEMPTATIONS. EXARRIGAN'S THEATRE, 35th st. and 6th see.

W. HANLEY
Fortierance Towards Evening, Manager
Har. EDWARD HARRIGAN, Wed.
Reilly and the 400. Mate. Wed. ACADEMY, MATINEES WEDT A SATY.

DENIAN THOMPSON AND ORIGINAL TO

THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

CABINO. BROADWAY AND STRET. Evenings at 8.15. Matines Saturday at 2. POOR JONATHAN. Admission, 50c. Seats on sale two weeks anoug.

MADISON SQ. THEATRE, 24th st. and B'way. PW KW PARK THEATRE, Broadway and 35th at Every evening at 8.15 Matines Thurs, & Set. POWERS. IN STRAIGHT TIP. EALMER'S THEATRE, Broadway & 30th st. Evenings, 8, 15. Saturday Matines at 2.

L.YCKUM THRATHK at NERVES.
8.15. Matines Saturday. NERVES.
Preceded by The Open Gate. POWER STAR THEATRE. TO-NIGHT.

COLUMBUS THEATRE, 195th at. and Laz. ave. HANLON - VOLTER MARTINETTI EDEN--OTERO--AND LILL W. 25d St. BEAUTIFUL. JAPANESE.

1 6TH ST. MUSIC HALL AND ALHAMBRA COURT, 134 and 136 East 14th st. Orchestrion plays every afternoon and evening.

BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS.

HYDE & BEHMAN'S. The "Night Owls Beautiful Show." Uroung and beautiful ladies led by the Queen of Burlesque, PAULINE MARKHAM. The Burlesque of TKMPTATION, Box office open daily from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. HUBER & GEBHARDT'S CASINO.
JOHNNIE CARROLL, BYRON & WESTON.
JAMES BOWMAN, BESSIE SHARLE, MINNIE SCHULE.

Week March 23. Matirees Wed, and Saturday.

AMNIE PIXLEY, 22 SECOND PLOOR and KATK.

Next week, Hort's MIDNIGHT BELL.

COL. SINN'S NEW PARK PHEATRE.

This week, Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

GEORGE THATCHER'S MINSTRELS. AMPHION, Lessees and Managers. Roland in "Lend Me Your WIFE." HOLMES'S STAR THEATRE EVERY NIGHT, MATINEES WED. & SAT.

CLEMENCEAU CASE.

A FALSE FRIEND

The Story of Charles Watson's Treachery for the Sake of Wealth.

"Yes, it does indeed seem strange," said | try for a year was the least punishment the Frederick Munroe. "that you, my most in- firm could have inflicted on you. You but an ungrateful brute, but I do not for- Willis and her chaperon aunt included me "Three is one too many," and entering a cesiment." timate friend-my brother, I may say-have know, Charles, as well as I do, that it was get that but for you I should have been a in the invitation ?" hever yet seen my affianced bride, although only my interference in your behalf that convicted felon, serving my time out in she has been such these three months or saved you from "-

"Strange, but true," responded his com- You need not so kindly remind me of my panion, stretching himself lazily before the youthful indiscretions. Fred, my dear felblazing fire. "That is one of the beauties low, forgive me. I cannot yet bear an alluof being an exile for nearly a year. Hang sion to that freak "-it, Fred, if I leave London again for any one! I mean to settle down here, now; next door to the firm of Andrews & Co. word hard and square!" cried Charles would be the situation I should like best. Watson, angrily.

Let them drive me away if they can !" speaker rose, and began to pace the room. | sake, Charles, I would have you remember ingly-"as your true friend, I would bid before you defy Mr. Andrews. True, the you remember that you have only yourself money has been refunded, and the proofs

"From prison! Yes, I know all that.

"Freak! Is that all you term it ?" "Well, then, crime-if you will have the

"There, there-do not get angry, old fel-"Charles, Charles," said Munroe, warn- your impulsive disposition, and think well to blame for all this trouble; and it seems against you are in my hands; but he might People wondered at your so suddenly quit- and marry a wealthy orphan." ting the firm, and leaving England in such "I wish she were not so rich," said haste; but I defended you, Watson, until Fred.

" I know it-I know it," cried his friend, and then he rose. placing his hand affectionately on the "Well, it is settled, then, that I meet you other's shoulder. "Man never possessed a at the station to-morrow for a fortnight's garded the old lady's parting words; in perhaps angry too, for I can forgive any persistent Mr. Ball refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha, ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall refer to "Andrews & lieve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean that you shall leve! But, ha ha! I mean tha truer friend than I do in you, Fred. I am visit at Rose Hall Y You are sure that Miss stead he called to mind that trite proverb, thing more casily than deception or con. Co.," and spoke of a rumor be had heard be a successful one, and no more is needed

she—does Miss Willis know of this?" "Think you, Watson, that I would betray her at last." my friend even to her? No, no-that un- And so it happened that the following fostered the wish that had crept into his and sorrows; trust me, Laura." my friend even to her? No, no—that un— And so it happened that the following lostered the win that had even in and sorrows; trust not, happened that the following lostered the win that had even in and sorrows; trust not, happened that the following lostered the win that had been the prize his "I do, Fred, fully and entirely trust you." subject. while I shall never keep back anything that | ing over the lawn which surrounded Rose | friend had won. concerns myself alone from my future wife, Hall—the one arm in arm with her who had yet will I never betray another's secret."

"You are a noble fellow, Munroe," exclaimed Charles, his handsome face lighting ing the aged relative who, while she reup with real admiration, as he looked on ceived a home at the hands of her nices, soon he distinguished Fred Munroe's melneighbor who had called to spend a sociable value, and carefully erased a few words; to London, leaving Watson a hostage, as And, with a dark frown on his face, the low-do not get angry. But for your own his friend. "And now I am going to ask contributed not a little to lessen the latter's low tones. one more favor of you. Give me all the papers you have relating to that-that affair, and then we will drop the subject forever, unless I am some day rich enough to young couple before the with ill-concealed mean ?"

they ceased to whisper against your good A few minutes later the required documents were in Charles Watson's possession,

"Sure? Yes, of course; and it will give threw himself down on the seat to think. jail. Fred," he abruptly added, "does me infinite pleasure to introduce my 'adopted brother,' as Laura calls you, to teeming in his brain; for weak, vain, sel'. would be incomplete could I not always go eyes-keen in all which related to her be-> promised to walk thus closely with him through life, the other dutifully entertainlonely life.

Charles Watson's words were addressed to to me that to require you to leave the coun. still agreed abroad unpleasant rumons. Perhaps I shall follow in your footsteps, so confidingly to his friend, arm.

treat to the parlor. Go you, and join that ing a secret from me, I "absorbed pair yonder."

loving Charles Watson entersined and to you with all my hopes and fears, joys trothed—that on both of these occasions he breakfast meal been cleared away the fol-

-but how. Sorely puzzled how to set about his

"So you would never trust even me the parlor, the old gentleman was speaking strokes of his pen, he altered those which again, if you should find that I had ever to Fred Munroe.

repay you the sum you have wasted on me. admiration of the state, suty who clung "That is hardly a fair question," was —let me see—yes, I have it! I have seen Willis and her wealth—yes, that is my aim back to Rose Hall.

Perhaps I shall follow in your footsteps, so confidingly to his friend, arm. the reply. "But, acriously, Fred, I hope you at Andrews & Co.'s, have I not?" now; and when I make up my mind to do a [Conclude]

"Well, Mr. Watson," said Mrs. Wood, at | you will never try to conceal anything from "I have been there," replied Fred Mun. thing, I generally succeed. If Fred were only length, "it may do for you young folks to me. I give you fair warning that I am roe, briefly, and then he abruptly turned at a distance, there would be more hope for stay out in this evening air, but old people naturally suspicious; and if I was ever to the conversation; but his manner was so me; but I must do my best as it is. She is like me must be more careful; so I will re- have reason to believe that you were keep. embarrassed, his face so dark and flushed, already suspicious that he conceals some " What would you do, my fair tyrant !"

thickly shaded Summer-house close by "I am not afraid, my dearest, reputs up by the firm.

Fred Munroe, "for I shall never put you to up by the firm.

Nor did it esc "I am not afraid, my dearest," replied of the clerks there which had been hushed Fred Monroe were only out of the way!" Yes, to think-to meditate over the plans the test. Believe me, Laura, my happiness Nor did it escape Laura Willis's keen resolved to bestow on Charles Watson all

> And then they passed on, while Charles . caught. They suggested an idea to him.
>
> Very soon he followed the young couple
>
> Watson sat long, wrapped in deep thought, delay.
>
> At last he rose, and spreading a paper It was impossible to ignore the summons, the old lady, while his looks wandered to the deceived you, Laura-is that what you "Your face is very familiar to me," he said: "I have surely met you before. Ah am I ready for the campaign. To win Laura basely sought to supple that Laura watched him in wondering mystery connected with Andrews & Ca. silence.

he allowed to remain otherwise untouched. "There!" he muttered, half aloud; "now

That is the key I must play on. Ah, Charles of some breach of trust on the part of one to keep you straight with the world! If

Fortune, fickle jade that she is, seemed changed color and studiously avoided the lowing morning, when a telegram was received by Fred Munroe from the firm in which he had recently become interested, To wrest this rich beauty from him-yes Watson sat musing on the few words he had That night, alone in his chamber, young requiring him to return to town without evening; and as Charles Watson entered while here and there, with a few skilful he laughingly said, for his speedy return. The latter accompanied his friend to the station, and drawing a long breath of reli as the train bore away the man

[Concluded To